Minutes of the meeting held on 20 September 2017 were proposed a correct record by Mrs Knoery all in favour

Jericho weight limit restriction sign:

Explained to Mrs Colman we have been in contact with highways this problem is ongoing, because of changes within Highways Dept., not all ongoing requests are passed on, having to start the process again, Councillor Markley is continuing to try and get something done, have spoken with Amber Sykes CCC Highways, she had not replied to e-mails and apologised, when spoke to her, she has passed on to Phillip Groom, we will continue to keep in contact with Mr Groom

School/Church Car Parking:

Contact Mr Dominic Deneeny CCC property services add Mr Markley into e-mail about the car parking on school/church carpark. Residents of School House are parking on the CCC car park and on the side of the road, there have also be unpleasant words said to parents who park near his house when collecting their children from school, also cars parked outside the school canteen and in front of Parish notice board

Chairman's Announcements:

To attend CALC AGM with Linda Housby, guest speaker Police Commissioner
Hellrigg Fund – clerk has received an e-mail about an application for grant funds, for repair of equipment and for a new covered seat, Mrs Knoery did not know anything about the seating (if they had done any planning this a conservation village Solway Coast AONB should have been informed, surveyed local residents, and they had not contacted the Parish Council who look after the greens)
Clerk to contact Hellrigg Grant Panel – explained what is happening with this application Clerk to invite representatives from the Play Area Committee to explain what they are proposing to do.

Chairman and Clerk to attend local policing meeting on 21 November at Cockermouth Police Station

Banks clerk to contact Allerdale

Mrs Knoery proposed we apply for precept of £5000 no increase from last year this to be confirmed
January meeting all in favour

Fly Tipping:

Builders rubble and rubbish has been dumped along New Cowper and Edderside road, Mr Strick to clear, there has also been rubbish dumped at shilly heap at Overby clerk to contact Allerdale

Dubmill Grunion's:

High tide sifted the grunions (post should have been knocked in rather than holes dug) clerk to contact Karl Melville

Jordan Beck has moved mounds of gravel altering the channel moving from Dubmill towards Mawbray Yard

Pipe from Brownrigg blocked by gravel etc heavy rains and tides have moved the stones from the pipe entrance to keep checking, this could cause flooding problems further back inland

Mawbray Parking:

PCSO Nichol has been keeping an eye on the parking issues in Mawbray, everything seems to be ok at the moment, will continue to drive through to assess the situation

There being no other business the meeting closed at 8.45pm the next meeting will be held on 17
January 2018 at Home St Cuthbert Hall at 7.30pm clerk to invite representatives from Mawbray Play
